

OCTOBER 2020

Monthly Update

LYRICA
BAROQUE

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

What a busy time! Arts organizations, musicians and artists are reimagining their programming, performances and creative work in order to adapt to these challenging times. We have been focusing on quality rather than quantity, taking a look inward, directing our efforts towards organizational capacity in terms of staffing, budgeting, board development, fundraising and programming. I am so excited about the progress we've made as well as the truly beautiful programs we have in the works to finish out 2020 and embark on 2021. Through the end of the year we will be participating in #GivingTuesday on December 1st and a wonderful year-end giving campaign. We appreciate so much any and all support you are able to lend.

PROGRAMMING UPDATE

- MO & CHO was a spectacular fundraising event on October 6th at the Tchoup Yard. A sold out, but socially distanced crowd was treated to an evening of Mozart and Chopin performed by Michael Harold and Quinn Peeper on Piano on a Truck and accompanied by the Touro String Quartet.
- NOLA CHAMBER FEST 2021 Super Early Bird registration is open through November 13th. This year we are expanding our outreach especially for the Junior and High School Divisions. In addition, for the first time our Graduate and Emerging Ensemble Divisions are open to ensembles nation-wide. Follow all the latest on the dedicated NOLA Chamber Fest 2021 Facebook and Instagram pages.
 - SPONSORSHIP opportunities are available!
- WINTERREISE We are so excited to have Soprano Sasha Massey as the evening's host! This annual family friendly, free event will feature a selection from Schubert's Winterreise and an arrangement of the traditional song Greensleeves. Mark your calendar and be sure to tune in as we live-stream from the University of New Orleans on Thursday, December 17 at 7 PM.
- BEST CHAMBER MUSIC PERFORMANCE 2019 was awarded to Lyrica Baroque for Winterreise 2019 in the Gambit's Big Easy Awards! While we loved performing together, knowing how much it means to our audience and that it is a truly valued part of your holiday tradition is wonderful. Thank you to all who voted!

If you would like to join our mailing list to receive programming updates and performance details, click HERE.

HIGHLIGHTS

Mo & Cho
at the Tchoup Yard

SUPER Early Bird Registration for NOLA Chamber Fest 2021 is November 13!

Join Soprano Sasha Massey as she hosts Winterreise 2020

Winterreise2019 named
Gambit's Big Easy Award for Best
Chamber Music Performance!