Organizational Updates

A MESSAGE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

What challenging times we are living in! We are so happy to close 2021 with feelings of joy, gratitude, celebration and pride. We accomplished many wonderful things this year artistically, collaboratively and educationally. We reached new audiences, made new friends and secured new funding sources.

Thank you to each and every one of you. Your support and friendship has kept us going and thriving throughout tremendous challenges. We truly are building community through chamber music and I could not be more proud. 2022 here we come!

With gratitude,
Jaren

PROGRAMMING

Winterreise was a huge success with more than 400 people in attendance - all masked, spaced out, and in a safe space to experience the wonder and inspiration of live music. Orion Weiss was not able to join us sadly due to illness and out of an abundance of caution. Pianist Elena Lacheva from Louisiana State University stepped in on a moment's notice and wowed New Orleans audiences. The concert was live streamed on Christ Church Cathedral's YouTube channel with over 100 viewing in real time. Live recordings from the performance will be released on our YouTube channel - stay tuned!

We had five ensembles register for early-bird registration for NOLA Chamber Fest 2022 with several more applications started. Posters were mailed across the country to all of the major conservatories and t-shirts with our new NCF branding and logos were printed. We are so excited about our upcoming festival!

FUNDRAISING

We are honored and humbled to announce that Associated Chamber Music Players and Threadhead Cultural Foundation will be supporting NOLA Chamber Fest for a second year in a row! Thank you so much for your support!

A huge and very special thank you to the New Orleans Theatre Association for their very generous grant towards our school programs. We are so excited to take this program to the next level and can't wait to share more about our exciting partnership with Kid smART with all of you. More coming in 2022!

There is still a lot of work to be done and we are excited for 2022 and the fantastic programs we have planned! If you are interested in supporting Lyrica Baroque, please contact Jaren Atherholt at jaren@lyricabaroque.com.

HIGHLIGHTS

Elena Lacheva stepped in on a moment's notice - bravo!
